South America

Rabbi Marty Waldman

Brazil is unique in South America. The national language is Portuguese rather than Spanish. This past November I spent nine days in Brazil and spoke eleven times during my stay. What a challenge! The TJCII message was well received by many, and the opportunity to meet such a diverse people was rewarding in and of itself.

Christopher Walker, our TJCII National Director in Brazil, hosted our conference near Sao Paulo. He also arranged numerous other speaking opportunities for me. I met with Jewish people, Catholics, Protestants, old and young...it was great! There was simply too much to share in one TJCII for You email, so today's email blast is a continuation of our previous Brazil report from November 29, 2019.

We will be returning to South America this year, but this time we'll be visiting numerous countries in the Spanish-speaking world. Our journey will take us to Argentina, Uruguay, Paraguay and Chile. The LORD may open other doors in South America as well. Please pray for this journey as we seek to share the TJCII message with Christian leaders, Messianic Jewish leaders and others. Our visits to South America are in preparation for a significant TJCII gathering that will take place

Our friends are in preparation for a significant 70th gathering that will take place in Jerusalem during 2022.

Thank you for praying and helping us share this restoration message for Jewish and Gentile believers in Yeshua (Jesus). One day we will see Yeshua's prayer for unity in John 17 fulfilled. In that day, the mystery revealed in Ephesians 2-3 and Romans 11 will also find fruition in Yeshua's second coming!

My hosts in Curitiba. Sr. Adola & Sr. Nechama, Evangelical Sisterhood of Mary.

Sister Adola (Evangelical Sisterhood of Mary) and a Catholic brother who came from Recife (3,000 km away) to meet Rabbi Marty and hear about TJCII.

This couple came to the TJCII conference from the Amazon!
