

7 Affirmations to Overcome Division in the Church

In two weeks, we will begin a short series to reintroduce the TJCII 7 Affirmations. These 7 Affirmations are leading TJCII in the quest to fulfill our call for a second Jerusalem Council.

In the hope of healing the most ancient wound among followers of Yeshua (Jesus), TJCII has continued to address the schism between Jewish and Gentile in the early Body of Messiah. It is time for the Church to affirm the Messianic Jewish community.

One such endorsement of the 7 Affirmations came from the International Pentecostal Holiness Church (IPHC). Dr. Doug Beacham, the Superintendent of the IPHC writes:

“The International Pentecostal Holiness Church responded positively to the Seven Affirmations because we believe they accurately reflect what the Bible teaches regarding Israel, Jews, and Gentiles. We believe the Seven Affirmations call God’s people to expressions of fundamental unity and reconciliation that will be sources of blessing to the world.”

As we see an increase of Christian denominations, networks and their leaders endorse the 7 Affirmations, TJCII will be fulfilling a major part of the vision entrusted to us by the Almighty and our Messiah Yeshua (Jesus).
